

Hall of Fame Nomination

The Hall of Fame award is designed to represent the best in the history of the pleasure horse industry. Members are encouraged to nominate horses and individuals believed to be deserving of recognition.

The nominee may be an outstanding sire or dam or performance horse and should be representative of the ultimate in what the industry strives to produce in a pleasure horse. The horse may be living or dead.

Breeding horses must be retired from the show arena.

Individuals will be selected on their contributions to our industry. Riders with earnings of $250,000 are automatically inducted.

Please return nomination forms to the NSBA office.

The winners will be announced at the annual awards banquet.
